Description

Partner:

Wando is an island which is about 500km (4.5 hours by bus) away from Seoul to south. There is a bridge to mainland so that people can commute conveniently by transportation. And also Wando is famous with seafood and beautiful landscape. However, there are youth depopulation issues because many of youth move to the bigger city nearby for better education condition these days. In result, international exchange and experience is rare to these local children as well. Therefore, this project focuses on providing new experience to local youth and children through international volunteers such as diverse cultures and education programs in cooperation with the host organization. The host organization is the local children center which is providing social and educational service for children and youth in Wando.

Work:

Participants will organize Global Cultural Camp. There will be 20-30 local children in a camp who don't speak English very well. Participants will develop the whole programs with indoor and outdoor activities such as traditional cultures, sports, choir, drawing, learning workshop and so on. It requires creative ideas and full of energy to get local young people exposed to new experiences.

Accommodation and food:

In the local children center /Meals are provided and self-catering.

Namhansanseong was designed as an emergency capital for the Joseon dynasty (1392-1910), in a mountainous site 25 km south-east of Seoul. Built and defended by Buddhist monk-soldiers, it could accommodate 4,000 people and fulfilled important administrative and military functions. It is the only fortress that has been used as an emergency palace during a war so it is historically significant. In recognition of its value, Namhansanseong was designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2013. But, so far it is more famous for a mountain-climbing and driving destination for local residents and visitors. Besides, many people have no idea it is World Heritage site. The aim of this project is promoting the importance and value of Namhansanseong as a World Heritage and preserving it.

Work:

Participants will organize the global culture camp for youth not only to give them awareness of world heritage site and know more about the importance of world heritage but also to teach how the other country treat the world heritage.
