Location: village Siomkava, Minsk region, Belarus, 17 km from Minsk (<http://bit.ly/semkovo>). The site is a picturesque Belarusian village which used to be the residence of Minsk province governor and where the last King of Polish¿Lithuanian Commonwealth stayed. Physical work to be done: Archeological excavations (mainly), restoration and reconstruction, cleaning of the park area (no more than 5 hours a day).

Infrastructure: Siomkava is a quite big village (about 2.000 people), there are several shops, a post office and a small medical station nearby the camp location. The mobile connection is satisfactory. There is a large park near the residence and 2 swimming spots nearby (the Minsk sea - 6km, and Sialiuty lake - 4 km).

- Bed linen or a sleeping bag
- Working clothes, footwear and gloves
- Light metal spoon, saucer and cup, pocket knife - for the weekend hiking
- Interesting games or whatever for leisure
- Musical instruments (optional)
- Warm clothes (in the evening/night the temperature at the camp site can be about +15)

- Flash light

Language: English/Russian, Belarusian.

Extra Fee: 30 Euro, to be paid on arrival.

Three main points to which volunteers should be prepared for:

1. Practically all foreigners need visa to enter Belarus. Here you can find the Diplomatic Representation of the Republic of Belarus in your country (http://belembassy.org/index\_eng.html). We provide the volunteers with the invitation letter and will be happy to give advice or any information about how and where to apply for visa.
2. All the foreign citizens have to be insured while staying in Belarus. If the volunteers arrive by plane, they will have to buy Belgosstrakh insurance (<http://bgs.by/en/>) before they go to the passport control. If they arrive by train or by bus, they will have to buy the Belgosstrakh insurance in the nearest Belgosstrakh office (or ask the camp leader to do this for them beforehand). The cost of insurance depends on the duration of stay.
3. All foreign citizens who stay in Belarus for more than 5 working days should be registered in the local migration office. This procedure will be done by the camp leaders. The cost is 55.000 BYR (about 4 euro).
