Description of Workcamp: IIWC 1413/WHV Borobudur Camp/Magelang/14/08 - 27/08/HERI, EDU/18+/12

Project Description:

A. Background: Indonesia International Work Camp has been carrying on the patrimonto project since 2008 by organizing Borobudur International Camp. The activity was organized based on the need of the awareness rising among the youth in protecting, promoting and preserving the world heritage site in Indonesia especially in Borobudur temple.

B. Project: The international work camp organized in Borobudur temple (find the link of UNESCO's inscription for Borobudur) for world heritage volunteer project under the scheme of UNESCO World Heritage Education program, Borobudur Patrimonto International Work camp focuses on the education and awareness campaigns by involving local senior high school students trained as 'Young Guardian', local youth and local people. The target group of the project is visitors of the temple (both domestic and international visitors). The first Borobudur patrimonto work camp in 2009 was able to create a group of 31 Senior High school students under the name of 'Young Guardian Borobudur', create educational material for world heritage education highlighting the active involvement of youth and local community in preserving, promoting and protecting the world heritage site in 6 different languages, organize 6 days awareness campaigns entitled 'Young Guardian in Action: Together we care' with visitors of Borobudur temple as target group. Beside giving education for the youth to take active involvement in the preservation, promotion and protection effort, the camp was also giving change for them to experience the difficulties of those works and implement directly the strategies planned in managing the visitors and increasing their awareness on the importance of their role in determining the future of the temple.

C. The aims of the camp are:

1. Organizing 6th batch training for young guardian network for 30 local senior high school students that will act as multiplier for the world heritage education project in their locality.
2. Organizing activities for creating promotional education materials or tools for public awareness campaigns on the One stop service stands
3. Organizing public awareness campaign by distributing education and promotion materials
4. Strengthening the cooperation with all stake holder and site management of world heritage site in Indonesia.

D. Work: Designing workshop/training for young guardian club of Borobudur 6th batch, implementing the awareness campaigns by organizing One stop service desk for visitors of the temple and school visit

E. Special remarks: be ready for, many ideas for games, competition and cultural exchange. So enthusiastic local students, very broad visitors with different understanding about preserving world heritage, be patient and have big big smiles!!!

Project Description:

A. Background: Ramadhan, Moslem life and Indonesia are three things that are close related to each other. It was such an interesting suggestion from IIWC partners to organize work camp in Ramadhan Month. Luckily with good and strong partnership with IIWC local partners, in 2012 IIWC organizes the 3rd Ramadhan Study Camp which will emphasize an introduction of moslem culture in Indonesia: Ramadhan and its meaning for Indonesian moslem.

B. Project: This workcamp offers a cultural experience and study about Ramadhan life in Indonesia including the ramadhan working hours, sleeping and wake up management, way of working, schedules, food and drinks, cookies, etc. More than that, volunteers will have opportunity to share their knowledge with the local students in terms of sharing Ramadhan cookies recipes and helping the students with their school studies such as English, Math, etc.

C. The aims of the camp are to introduce moslem culture in Indonesia; to give opportunity to international volunteers an experience of the culture of Islamic celebration in Indonesia; to give opportunity for value added for the local people in practicing Ramadhan in international atmosphere; to promote global understanding and friendship through intercultural learning.

D. Work: Activities 1: Learning reading and writing Arabic, calligraphy, Rebana (Islamic drum). Activities 2: Cooking together for cookies or drinks or special food for lebaran or designing moslem clothes for Lebaran. Activities 3: Making Ramadhan greeting cards and selling it in as charity. 4: Helping school subject study for children.

E. Special remarks: be ready for very early breakfast for Ramadhan at 2.30 am, sleepy day time, praying songs during most evenings, so enthusiastic local children and local people, be patient and have big big smiles!!!

Description of Workcamp: IIBC 1419/Pekalongan Street Children/Pekalongan City/12/08 - 25/08/KIDS, EDU/18+/12

Project Description:

A. Background: Pasir Sari, Poncol and Bugisan are areas in Pekalongan where children with less opportunities and drop out children living. It happen because of very less income of their parents who normally work in informal sector. A hard living in the city leads people to be hardly struggle for a living. This cause parents will insist their children as ¿money producer¿ by asking them to go down to street to beg money. Why children? because people will normally feel pity on children rather than adult in giving money. To solve this problem IIBC has concerned by having volunteer house pekalongan and place some LMTV (Long Middle Term Volunteer) who support those children education.

B. Project: The hygienic situation and education are really low. The work camp should support the LTV in teaching the children as well the parents in Hygiene and how to raise their living standard. We will make station learning as we did for the weekend work camp. Furthermore we will make meetings with the parents to inform them about the importance of education, hygiene, etc.

C. The aims of the camp are:

1. Supporting LTV in teaching street children in Pasir Sari, Poncol and Bugisan, long lasting hygienically education for children and parents, motivation drop out children to go to school again
2. Share experience in vulnerable group with IIBC LTVs
3. Experience and exchange the local culture with your origin culture for global friendship

D. Work: station learning, playfull learning, artistic concepts, stories, art work (painting, theater, and music), sharing sessions, cooking session, games with local children around the campsite, and cultural exchanges.

E. Special remarks: Expected results are better hygienical situation, less sicknesses, long term achievement. Target groups are Street children, children with less opportunities, drop out children, parents.
