Description of Workcamp: INFORMATION SHEET
 CJM16 - Rabat/Salé, 11/08/- 25/08/2013

Leaving Rabat crossing the majestic moulay Hassan bridge towards Salé which is an old city composed of two parts, the old Medina where life withing its medieval limits still remain susprisingly traditional and where many important historical monuments such as the Medersa and old mosques could be found (built in 1341) many monumental gates, the 'Grande mosque' , the Medina and the mellah (jewist Qarter) and many other well worth visiting places , stand up fightingagainst time.

The second part (called , la ville nouvelle) located outside the wall of the old Medina, is well known by its 'jardin exotique' a garden which is full of precarious bamboo bridges, dot- directed routes , where one can wander throuth a sequence of brilliant regional creations, 'la ville nouvelle' is also famous by its 'plages des nations' a relaxed and friendly place with an excellent beach (to swim is dangerous).

In few words, Salé is a city of wonderful beaches (two) well worth seing monuments , a vast forest(Maamora) and of other things to be seen and not talked about; let alone what can be seen in its neighbour Rabat (the capital of Morocco separated from Salé only by river. "Chantiers jeunesse Maroc" is organizing a workcamp with the collaboration with delegate of ministry of education Salé.

Nature of the project: painting classrooms and frescoes on the wall and gardening
The duration of work will be 5 hours /a day.
