Description of Workcamp:

For the second time, a workcamp will take place in Winterlingen, a community in the German region Baden-Wuerttemberg. Winterlingen is situated in the Swabian Alb, between Stuttgart and Lake Constance. The community has around 6400 inhabitants, the next town Albstadt is only 10km away. The project consists of many different tasks in Winterlingen and the nearby nature reserve. Workers of the local building yard will instruct and support the work. You will do painting works at different places, like the graveyard wall in Winterlingen, in the sports hall and in local Kindergartens. Another task will be the paving of the so called "Winkele-Wege", small paths connecting the main roads. Besides you will do different works in the nature and green areas in and around Winterlingen. You will be accommodated in the newly renovated "Kaplaneihaus". The house has four shared rooms (max.6 people) and three double rooms. Each room has its own bathroom. A big common room and a well-equipped kitchen are also provided. Every morning a bus shuttle will take you to your working place. Winterlingen is situated in the nature reserve "Obere Donau", offering beautiful hiking trails and various castles to visit. The community has a good infrastructure with shopping possibilities, sports facilities and the biggest natural outdoor pool of Baden-Wuerttemberg. On the weekends you can visit the university town Tübingen, Stuttgart or spend a day near Lake Constance.

Description of Workcamp:

The community tries to arrange bicycles for the workcamp, so you should be able to ride a bike. Ability to swim is highly recommended. It will be the 5th time that the International Street-Art-Festival takes place in Blumberg and the first time that it will be supported by an international workcamp. It is now one of the three big Festivals for Street or Pavement painters in Germany. In the last years artists from Italy, Spain, Hungary, Argentina, Venezuela, Belgium, Austria, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Russia, Ukraine and Croatia performed on the streets of Blumberg. This unique event is a nice mixture of charismatic artworks by professionals as well as amateurs, and a framework program that accompanies this family friendly festival. The festival itself will be on the 9th & 10th of July. Website of the festival: <http://www.street-art-festival.de/index.php/media.html>. Another part of the project will be open-air cinema nights (16th & 17th) in the newly re-opened public swimming pool. In addition to these events, the workcamp will support the community with renovating playgrounds. You will help the organizers in all phases of the festival: building up the infrastructure beforehand, taking care of the artists during the event, helping at the entrance and help with the disassembly at the end.

You will also help running the open-air cinema event that is part of the celebrations for the newly re-opened swimming pool, called "Panoramabad". In addition to working at these events, you will help the community with renovation tasks on the local playgrounds. You will live in the community building „Gemeinschaftshaus Zollhaus“, which is located in a small part of Blumberg around 3 km from the center. Toilets, a kitchen and a nice outdoor area are available. You will have free access to the „Panoramabad“, where you can use the showers. Please bring your own sleeping bags! Blumberg is located in the southern part of the Black Forrest close to Switzerland. Around 10.000 inhabitants are spread over 9 parts and villages, which all belong to Blumberg. Blumberg is famous for hikers, because it is close to the "Wutachschlucht", a spectacular gorge and nature reserve. Another Highlight is the historic, steam powered Railway called „Sauschwaenzlebahn“. Several other touristic places are quite close, like the Rhine waterfalls in Switzerland or the Island Mainau in the lake "Bodensee".

Our partners in this project are the scouts of the tribe "Schwarzer Mustang Achentel" (Black Mustang Achentel). In 2014 the community gave them the compound of a former tavern as their new club house. It is located remotely in the middle of the nature, but only a few minutes from the village centre. They have already invested hundreds of working hours into their new home, called "Foxbau", but there is still a lot to do and they are very happy to welcome international volunteers to help them. There are a lot of projects planned on the compound: Rebuilding the path around the lake and constructing a small bridge over the creek that flows into the lake, Construction of terraces for a camping ground, Demolition of small sheds, Construction of a new storage for fire wood, Building an outdoor shower, Renovation works on one of the terraces, Painting the roof, Beautifying the garden and the building, some outdoor tasks along the small creek and maybe even building a pizza oven. You will stay directly in the "Foxbau". There are two rooms, which can be used as sleeping rooms, with mattresses or camp beds, toilets and a shower. You can take a look here: <http://www.foxbau.eu/> Grassau is a village in the Achentel at the foot of the Chiemgauer Alps south of the Chiemsee, which is Bavaria's biggest lake. It's about 100km east of Munich and only 45km to Salzburg in Austria. Lots of leisure time opportunities present themselves, like hiking, climbing, rafting and trips to the Chiemsee with its famous islands and castle of the Bavarian King Ludwig.

Description of Workcamp:

The local host requires a motivation letter. Please also be aware that in this workcamp, only volunteers between 18 and 30 years will be accepted! Every year during the school holidays, the community of Weissach organises a summer camp for children aged 6 - 14. After last year's success and great cooperation, they are looking forward to interacting with international volunteers for the 6th time. There will be German professional educators and 8 international volunteers as leaders of the summer camp. Specific tasks will be attending to and looking after the kids and youngsters during different activities, such as: excursions, games and campfire - a typical summer camp! In the beginning of the camp, all leaders will help set up the camp site and plan activities. Two leaders (one international, one German) will be in charge of a group of 15 kids. The centre of the camp will be a big circus tent which will host different activities. So, if you like spending time with an international group and children, if you like to be asked a lot of (German) questions, and if you love to provide an outlet for the curiosity of children – you are the perfect participant for this camp! Welcome to Weissach! Working hours will be long but very rewarding and you will spend your free time mostly together with the kids (going on a trip with the kids on the weekend for example)! Some knowledge of the German language would be helpful but isn't obligatory! Your days off will not be during weekends. The host will organise free time activities! In the beginning, the group will be introduced to the project and have the chance to experience some major team-building activities so that all leaders can smoothly work together and make the stay worthwhile. The first few days, while the camp is being set up, the international group will stay in a school building, where all sanitary facilities are provided. During the summer camp, all leaders and kids will stay in tents on the camp site. Although the workcamp will take place during summer months, be aware that the nights can be very cold. Please bring a warm sleeping bag, a thick sleeping mat and rainwear! All facilities will be available. Food will be served. Weissach is a village with around 7000 inhabitants who are very active and dedicated to the project. It is located close to Stuttgart, the state-capital of Baden-Wurtemberg, but also has a lot of nature to experience and enjoy after work or on the weekends. The international group will have the chance to meet local people, interact with German youth and exchange cultural nuances.

This involves weeding, removing reed, edging flowerbeds, planting and so on. Basically, make the park look great again! In addition to that the group might also work on other green areas in the city. You will be accommodated in a municipal building that is directly in the center of the town. There is one big room that you may split up in two smaller ones if you prefer. A kitchen is also available; showers are not in the same flat, but directly next door. The accommodation is only 200 meters away from your work side and also pretty close to shopping facilities and the train station. Schorndorf is a medium-sized town with almost 40 000 inhabitants. The center is very beautiful with lots of old renovated half-timbered houses (typical for this area), where you can find shops and cafés. You can go hiking in the close-by forests, go swimming in the local outdoor swimming pool or go to Stuttgart, the capital of Baden-Wuerttemberg that you can reach within 45minutes by train.

Description of Workcamp: Ruppertshofen is a small community in the South of Germany; it is located in a rather rural area. Here, a local association is about to build a "forest kindergarten" – an outdoor kindergarten that allows kids to stay in touch with nature. The concept behind it is anthroposophical. You are going to help building this innovative kindergarten! It is supposed to be rather a part of the surrounding nature instead of a disturbing element. Therefore, you are going to build a huge yurt (some kind of a wooden hut) for the kids! Further, you will create paths and playground equipment (from natural material), set up fences and a campfire place, build a composting humus toilet, and plant bushes and trees: Basically, everything that needs to be done for the kindergarten! You will be instructed by professionals. You are going to stay in the local kindergarten in Ruppertshofen. Toilets, a kitchen, and a garden with a campfire place are provided. Region: The project will take place in a famous river hill and cultural landscape in the middle of Saxony at the foot of the Erzgebirge mountains, 35 km from Dresden, 15 km from Freiberg. In the last years with the help of several workcamps there was created a new conference room. It is set up in a sustainable manner, which means that are only used ecological materials. Now there is a courtyard ready to be designed as a perfect room for (outdoor) recreation and studies. Therefore we will work with wood, earth, rocks to create a little stage and some paths. We will build a landscape in Japanese stile, with additional hut for serving tee ceremony. We can use plants, stones and sculptures. As every year we are invited to get to know the local Perma Culture garden and do some gardening there. While you look after the plants, there this the possibility to harvest fruits. Of course there is also the opportunity to get to know about the idea of a Permaculture with its, plants, animals and environment. Therefore we are looking for 12 motivated young people who are interested in handicrafts, advanced training and gardening/landscaping. Study part: How to create a productive garden which grows plants and feeds animals in a way that only a minimum input of energy and resources are required to achieve maximum sustainability to the environment? Interesting ecological and cultural projects/information from your country is very welcome. The participants are accommodated in the big seminar room. Food will be prepared together in the big kitchen of the seminar house. After the great success with its first workcamp in 2013, the team for children and youth work (Team Kinder- und Jugendarbeit) in Erlensee (in short TKJE) is going to host another international work camp in the summer of 2016. The youth center offers a wide range of activities for kids between 6 and 18 years: leisure and cultural activities, social work in order to support children in need and special events with various topics. Region: Erlensee is a town with a population of approx. 13,000 in the German federal state of Hessen. It is situated 25 km in the east of the international city Frankfurt on the Main. Erlensee consists of two boroughs, Ruckingen and Langendiebach, and apart from minor shopping possibilities, it is a rather rural area. However, Hanau, the closest bigger town (Pop.: about 90,000), is only 7 km away and easy to reach by bike or bus. Hanau once was a prosperous city, because local sovereigns once welcomed the Huguenot, refugees from France to settle in their dominion and supported them to perform their knowledge in handcraft and trade. International volunteers are invited to support youth work of this center: In the first week, there will be manual work to do. In the center of Erlensee will be created a new skate place for teenagers and the youth, for skaters, bikers, graffiti-artists and everyone who is interested to use this public space. Together we want to build an interesting place, which invites to meet all these different kind of people. In the second week, the summer camp for children aged 6 to 12 takes place. With your help, this playscheme will be an international experience for the local kids. Your task will include caring for the children and designing the week s program together with our team of volunteers. The summer camp starts in the morning and ends in the late afternoon. One of the program points is the collective cooking for lunch and we are looking forward to your contribution with international recipes. We will also welcome your propositions for our creative, artistic and sportive activities. Study part: Getting to know concepts of youth work, diversity of subcultures of youth in Germany. The participants will be housed in the local sports centre. Several sleeping rooms, bathrooms, a shower and a big kitchen where you can cook and eat together will be at your disposal. In the sleeping rooms you will find mattresses or camp beds, bottom bed sheets and pillows. No upper bed sheets or blankets will be provided, please bring a sleeping bag. During both weeks, you will have the opportunity to join us for cultural excursions after the day s work is done. It runs a socio-cultural center of the local community and has constructed a so-called garden of senses which consists of a small park, a play area, trees for climbing and a natural stage for events with an 80 year old circus-wagon. It also has an area with herbal garden and berry bushes. Region: Mittweida is surrounded by a nice landscape with nice places waiting to be visited. Next interesting cities are Freiberg, Leipzig, Dresden. There is a university for applied science with lots of international students. Important is the work in the Garten der Sinne , which needs maintenance every year. Especially the tunnels made of wicker. This year a nice place for recreation and socializing will be completed in the garden. This means refilling the spot with mould and designing as lovely landscape. In case of rainy weather there is renovation to do indoors. Volunteers will be integrated into the household and are asked to cook the typical food of our country for approximately 20 guests and staff of the Mullerhof. In the end of the workcamp an international evening is planned, to introduce the countries of the participants. This will be open to the public. Study part: We can explore the possibilities and activities of the Mullerhof as an example of an socio cultural center. It will be possible to join workshops. In the last years volunteers joined for example yoga classes. The participants will sleep in the big loft of the Muellerhof (80m) which includes a shower and toilets. Description of Workcamp:

Please bring solid shoes and work clothes, sleeping bag and sleeping pads. The association KLOSTERGUT e.V. has set itself the task of preserving the historic buildings and the park areas of the former convent and to establish an educational learning center about organic farming. The History: The convent Heiningen was founded around the year 1000 as a home for nuns, called Kanonissenstift. It was equipped with rich land by the local sovereigns and was confirmed by a document from Emperor Henry II at 1013. Today a monastery church of Romanesque style from the year 1200 can still be found. Around 1350 the plague killed many people and made many rural residents to move to the cities. Entire villages were abandoned and many agricultural lands laid fallow. There was a short period of prosperity, when the nuns could sing and pray and their embroidered carpets were famous even in foreign countries. Then the monastery in 1542 was plundered by Saxon soldiers and reformed against the will of the residents. Since more than 100 years the estate is secularized, while the church was separated from the manor. Nevertheless, the buildings still exist as an architectural ensemble. The present inhabitants run an Organic Farm with particularly emphasis on dairy cattle with an attached creamery and a farm shop for organic food. About 40 Cows and 40 calves, 12 lively pigs, several cats and one dog can be met on the site.

Environment: The monastery Heiningen is located in the northern mountains of Harz at Lower Saxony. The region is primarily characterized by rural character and its agricultural use. It is surrounded by glacial ridges and in the south one can see the shape of the Harz, a famous low mountain range. As part of the national cultural heritage of Germany one can find artefacts from the area of prehistoric human history, medieval monasteries, castles and medieval towns. In Goslar, situated around 30 km in the south you can find three sites which are declared as UNESCO World Heritage: Goslar's Old Town, the medieval silver mine Rammelsberg and Upper Harz Water Management. Within a radius of 25 km there are the cities of Braunschweig, Wolfenbüttel and Salzgitter. We are looking for 12 motivated young people who are keen on craft work, landscaping and interest in dealing with farm animals. You are invited to maintain the (green) open space and paths and renovate the historic buildings and beautify the area. Work for the designing and construction of the planned educational learning center about organic farming, preparatory work for growing vegetables and small livestock will be running.

Study: We are living in a time with industrial agriculture which provokes lots of problems in the environment. Participants will learn about regional organic farming and how it can be sustainable and environmentally friendly. You can explore special features of ecological agriculture: in particular, the production of milk and cheese. Accommodation will be offered in large dormitories, Food will be prepared together in a big kitchen. Trips to the Region (Harz, Goslar, Braunschweig), sightseeing, swimming. The monastery complex itself offers creative possibilities for leisure activities. Please bring solid shoes and work clothes, sleeping bag and sleeping pads.

Every year at Himmelsfels there are offered events concerning art, culture, gospel and youth encounter. This summer season there will be arranged several international youth camps for teenager and a special arts-project with the Nigerian artist Olayanju Dada. This project is called the archive of dreams and participants are invited to create an interactive intercultural library in an artistic way. At the moment building of the library is still under construction. The roof is made of a former radar dome and naked walls are waiting for the volunteers to be designed. The library is supposed to be the place where kids can write down their stories and their dreams. After some years it will be like an Archive of Dreams, full of testimonials of hundreds of peoples and ready to enjoy as interactive art exhibition. Beside this, volunteers will help us to enrich the current youth camps by supporting the activities run for the kids. The programs will take place on the Himmelsfels itself. The area is surrounded by natural parks (for example Biosphere Reserve Schorfheide-Chorin) and large lakes. At the promenade of the Lake Unteruckersee you can find the boathouse (Bootshaus) of the local rowing and canoeing club. Volunteers are invited to support this rowing and canoeing club, which owns a wooden boat called Ukrasvan. This boat was built in the years 2003/ 04, but in the style and the craftsmanship of the middle age, when the region was populated from the slaves (an ethnic group which settled mainly in Eastern Europe). This boat is 13 meters long and 3 meters broad. It can be used as sailing boat and at the same time rowed by ten people. It's pylon counts about ten meters and it even offers a fireplace. International volunteers of the workcamp will be trained to row and sail this boat and to make trips on the lake together with tourists. You will also help to maintain this vehicle and if needed, you will also repair parts of the boat, which means manual work like painting and wood work. Study part: Learn how to maintain a wooden boat. We will make excursions to interesting places in the region. Accommodation will be offered in the compound of the Bootshaus. There you will find 4 wooden huts for 3 persons each. Kitchen, toilets and showers can be used in the Bootshaus and after a long day you can enjoy evening mood at the shore of the lake. Description of Workcamp:

Please do not forget to bring with you: sleeping bag, swimming things, work clothes, raingear and sturdy shoes. Food will be mostly vegetarian. Wukania Projektehof is a community, where people work and live together. In the time of the GDR (German Democratic Republik), the compound was a college of physical education with lots of facilities to train various kind of sport. Situated on the lake Wukensee, it is part of the resort of the little town Biesenthal (approx. 5500 citizen). The region is a protected area, called Nature park Barnim. In the project of Wukania, people come together to practice a self-determined and sustainable lifestyle. There are lots of different projects already existing: Two housing projects, an outdoor kindergarten, facilities for groups running a seminar, a place for camping including outdoor facilities like solar showers and composting toilet, an outdoor kitchen and some little gardens. Some people are working in the workshops for wood and metal. A few horses and chicken are also living in the yard. There are many plans for the future: another housing project with facilities for people who needs care will be build, a flat for refugees will be offered and a collective will work as catering service for schools and kindergarten in the region. It is important to know that Wukania is kind of living example for a human utopia: Houses, facilities, projects are self - organized, decisions are made in the spirit of consensus. Inhabitants like to learn from each other and to support each other. Wukania wants to work and live in sustainable manner; buildings are made mostly with loam, heating in the buildings is run with wood, hot water is prepared with solar power, composting toilets help to spare water and give fertilizer. Food is prepared vegetarian or even vegan. Inhabitants show a high commitment in political, social and cultural projects and is well integrated in the region. Examples for diverse cooperation are the Kulturbahnhof in Biesenthal, a shelter for refugees next town and different vegetable farmers. For more information please visit <http://www.wukania.net/> There are different construction sites in the compound of Wukania. Volunteers are invited to help in different kind of renovation work. Every help is welcome, even without certain skills like plastering and painting. But skilled volunteers also can learn how to work with wood like a carpenter, to lay tiles or a wooden floor. As heating is run with wood, firewood can be prepared and stored. There are some more ideas and we will communicate them later. Important part of the work is to prepare food for the group of volunteers and to keep facilities clean. For sure there will be the possibility to find any work in accordance with abilities and interests of the volunteers. Study: Inhabitants of Wukania would like to show you their life style, and would like to discuss certain aspects of a life which is mostly self-determined, self-organized, and community based: Questions like: What s the motivation to join this community? Does it really work? Which problems arise? Study part will follow interests of the volunteers. Accommodation will be very basic. Volunteers are invited to sleep in empty rooms which are only equipped with mattresses or simple beds. It is also possible to bring your own tend. Facilities are nearly same like in a camping site: Food will be prepared in a big outdoor kitchen, showers are run with solar power, toilettes are composting toilets, a fire place and a baking oven made of loam can be used. In case of bad weather volunteers can use a saloon and seminar rooms for their stay. There is no heating in the rooms. Volunteers can enjoy the green area and can go swimming in the lake every day. An excursion to Berlin can be arranged. Please do not forget to bring with you: sleeping bag, swimming things, work clothes, raingear and sturdy shoes. Food will be mostly vegetarian.

Some basic knowledge of German or English is recommended. Please bring rain and working clothes (rubber boots) as well as swim suits. Please bring a sleeping bag, slippers, towels and warm pullovers with you. You can also bring a map, pictures or special food items from your country. Bedheim castle was first mentioned in the year 1169 and was devastated and reconstructed several times in its long history. In the time of German Democratic Republic (GDR) it slowly rotted. Now renovation is done by the family of Ruehle von Lilienstern. A non-profit association is supporting the renovation work and using part of the castle for its own activities. Since 1992 this association has been organizing workcamps. In 1994 a biological-dynamic, social therapeutic nursery was added. The association is running an organic garden. Since 2007 the castle also runs a garden cafe and a small castle museum. During the last 20 years the castle became a sociocultural center for the region: In the castle there is a perfect room for celebrations, around the castle one can find various types of gardens and meadow for goose and goats. In addition there are training courses and cultural activities available. The aim of this project is to create an atmosphere where people with or without disabilities may come, live and work together without any prejudice against handicap, nationality or religion. The website gives an impression about the specific character of this place <http://schloss.bedheim.de>. Inhabitants of the castle are looking forward to meet us, to work with us and hear our suggestions and ideas and to create a peaceful world together. Region: Bedheim castle is located in the west of Thuringia, close to the Bavarian border. Next bigger town is Coburg (28km away). Bedheim is surrounded by the extraordinary beautiful Franconian landscape. We are invited to help in the care and preservation of this ancient monument. We will work 5 hours daily, to do painting and cleaning inside or to maintain the garden around the castle. In the garden kind of work depends to the season, usually it is harvesting fruits, cutting trees, bushes and hedges. Every year Bedheim castle is part of the nationwide event called day of the open monument. The castle will be opened in the weekend for guests and we can support with doing some service and show an artistic performance. In the last years volunteers showed a dance and played piano music. There will be the possibility to take on day of during the week as compensation. Bedheim castle offers a simple group accommodation. Meals will be prepared by us (less meat but a lot of very good vegetables and fruits from the nursery). Warm water is provided from solar collector. We may learn more about the following topics: natural beauty of the environment. We can make excursions to places of cultural and historical interest (e.g. Weimar, the city of Goethe and the concentration camp Buchenwald). We can have discussions and lectures about German history, society, culture and politics (the German East-West border was only 9 km away from Bedheim). There will be the possibility to encounter with young people of the region and getting to know more about the countries of the participants. Some basic knowledge of German or English is recommended. Please bring rain and working clothes (rubber boots) as well as swim suits. Please bring a sleeping bag, slippers, towels and

Description of Workcamp:

The work involved is physically demanding. This camp lasts 4 weeks. - You will be helping the surrounding communities with mowing fields and collecting hay. Sometimes, the fields are on a slope and are difficult to reach with machines. In nearby orchards, you will be repairing fences and protecting trees from being gnawed away by sheep. You will take care of rough grazing land, in order to conserve the habitats of endangered plants and animals. You will also be pulling out small tree saplings from the meadow in order to prevent them spreading in this particular habitat, therefore learning a lot about conservation in the process. For one week you will be at the Domberg Hill at Freising, where you will be working on paths to protect them from erosion and repairing sheep shelters and fences around the meadow. The work assignment will be led by specialist Tobias Oehmen, who will be able to share his knowledge about nature and the benefits of your contribution. An absolute highlight for nature lovers is a 4-day trip to the Alps, where you can go hiking, so bring your hiking boots. Note about the project: If you are someone who wants to spend time amongst nature, enjoys walking, hiking and can ride a bike, then we can't wait to work with you. When working amongst nature, some resistance to weather conditions is necessary. The desire to cook is also an advantage when applying to this camp, because you will be cooking your own meals and shopping for your own ingredients, including some free packages from certain shops in Freising. Cozy, self-catering house for nature lovers, 7km outside of Freising in an idyllic hillside location. You will cook your own meals together. You can reach Freising by bike along the river Isar. From there, the S-Bahn train travels to Munich. In Munich you have the opportunity to visit many museums, the English Garden or the famous Munich Hofbrauhaus. In the area surrounding Munich and in the Alps, you can go hiking and enjoy nature. Due to the close proximity to Hallertau, the largest hop-growing region in the world, there are many typical beer gardens around. It is also possible to go on hiking tours with the river Amper tour guides of the Friesing district. You must be able to ride a bike. Ankle-high hiking boots and warm, waterproof clothing are absolutely necessary, since you will need them for not only working, but also hiking.

Sometimes the work will be physically demanding. You will be living in a remote location at the forest support point, around 10km South West of Ehingen. The station is 5km away by bike. There is no wi-fi, only relatively weak connectivity over mobile internet. - Together with the forestry and conservation specialists of the Alb-Donau district, your tasks will be to take care of and restore a wetland area (ponds and streams), to take care of a juniper heath and some neglected grassland at Mochental. You will cut the ponds free, repair the dam and move the rapidly growing climbing plants away from the pond, so that many different species of plants and animals can grow there once more. Juniper heaths were in this area in the past through grazing from sheep and goats, and as the biotope with the largest number of different species in central Europe, is heavily protected by conservationists. They are in danger of growing like in the woods again. Here you will be moving prickly shrubs and trees in order to create more space and light for the rare plants, insects and birds who are already living there. You will be coached by a forest ranger, a forestry master and some apprentices. You will be sleeping on camp beds in a group room on the grounds of the Mochental Castle. There is a separate living space with kitchen. You will cook your own meals together. You will be living in a remote location, and can sit around a camp fire during the evening. In the surrounding area (up to 35km away), there are companies in the Swabian Alp biosphere region, the Bierkulturstadt Ehingen, the Laichinger caverns and high ropes course, canoes on the Grossen Lauter lake, the outdoor museum in Kurnbach and the river Ulm with the world-renowned city of Munster. Description of Workcamp: In this camp you can learn many things about the supply of drinking water and the prevention of water pollution in Germany. - In collaboration with the employees of the Wahnbach reservoir management authority, you will be undertaking various conservation projects around the reservoir. Firstly, the touch-me-not around the tributaries must be removed, to avoid it driving out other local plant species. Secondly, you will be building birdhouses and repairing the barriers all around the Wahnbach reservoir. If there is time, you will be checking over the sign posts along nearby paths and renewing them if necessary. You will be staying in an idyllic but remote scouts house in rooms with several beds. This is though an experimental camp, to improve eco-friendly practices in the groups. Volunteers will sleep in tents, use eco-toilets and showers, cook outside on a fireplace, eat local products and bio products, and discuss ecological topics. Main work will be in the forest, as maintenance of young stands, field mapping of new trees, planting of rare trees, searching and marking of habitat trees, waters care. Participants will also be doing various manual works to prepare the area around the house of the nature-friends for leisure activities of groups coming from the city. Time of work will be 5-6 hours daily, excluding Saturday and Sunday. Accommodation will be in tents. Cooking place, bathroom and showers will be outside. Cooking, cleaning, shopping etc. will be done by the group itself. Like in each workcamp, accommodation, food and travel-costs for excursions are free as well as materials/copies needed for the lectures. Marburg is a historical and picturesque old university town, 100 km north of Frankfurt/Main. It has 82.000 inhabitants, including 25.000 students (from actual 120 different countries). The camp is located approx. 2 km away from the city centre. As the language course is not for absolute beginners, participants must be able already to communicate in German, at least on a level which ensures simple communication. Participants also must be willing to communicate with each other during the camp in German and not in English or in their own mother tongue for the whole time, not only during the lectures. This is one important part of the concept. Because of the language-course there is an extra-fee of 160,00 EUR to be paid upon arrival. A certificate for participating in the language-course will be given at the end of the camp.

Description of Workcamp:

Your project will take place in a new housing estate in the eastern part of Berlin. Its construction was part of a large government-run housing project in the former GDR during the 1970s. Small villages surround this borough. You can easily reach the city centre and other leisure facilities like cinemas, shopping centres, pubs, sports halls and youth clubs by means of public transport. But it takes you some time to get to the real city of Berlin!

The house in which you will be accommodated is at the same time a hostel and a home for disadvantaged people and refugees. This combination is unique, and it works, since more than 10 years. Your main task will be renovation works in the building. Here are accommodated homeless people and people with fewer opportunities. You will clean and paint free rooms. It is possible that you will also renovate and decorate other rooms of the building, e.g. the community room. Another task will be various maintenance works outside. It is appreciated if you will be open-minded and flexible to do whatever task has to be done in and outside of the house. You will live in the hostel of pro-social Berlin

Description of Workcamp:

Jena is with about 100.000 inhabitants the 2nd biggest city in Thüringen and is situated on the banks of the river Saale, surrounded by white and grey calcite mountains in the eastern part of Thüringen. Jena is famous for the high-tech Zeiss Optical Instruments, the Schiller University and the Zeiss-Planetarium, which is the oldest continuously operating planetarium in the world. The city of Jena and its surroundings present many good opportunities for recreation and relaxing. In the first week you will work with local foresters in the wood of Jena. Your tasks will include various environmental works, e.g. maintaining foot paths, lookout points and shelters. Your help will be needed for different nature protection projects. Please be prepared for environmental works to help the rangers only outside. In the second week, the volunteers will help the environmental organisation "Fuchsturmgesellschaft" to chop down trees for a better visibility and let a bright landscape appear from the way leading to the tower and maintenance work in the flora-fauna habitat. Your help will be needed in the Education Path; also huts need renovation or maintenance.

This is a camp for nature lovers! Work can be physically challenging at times. Volunteers will be accommodated in an isolated hostel on a hill in the Western part of Jena. Each room has 10 beds and your only neighbours will be the woodland animals. Please notice that Jena city is far away from your accommodation, so better be ready to spend lots of time by yourselves, enjoying games / sports and outdoor activities. We can go hiking and have cycling tours in this beautiful area. We can also make trips to other cities, for example we can travel to Weimar, which is well known as the workplace of the poets Goethe and Schiller. You'll be able to learn more about history, as we could visit the former concentration camp Buchenwald. The student city of Jena offers many cultural possibilities to explore. Free-time activities will mainly depend on your ideas and wishes.

Description of Workcamp: Sachsenhausen was one of the earliest concentration camps in Germany, built in 1936. For example German people who were in opposition to Nazi policy, homosexuals, so-called asocials, criminals, Jews, and during the war especially people from occupied countries were imprisoned, forced to work and a lot of them were murdered.

Between 1945 and 1950 a part of this area was used as a so-called Special Camp of the Soviet Secret Service.

Now it is a place for studies and to commemorate the victims: the memorial site ¿Gedenkstaette and Museum Sachsenhausen¿ (¿Memorial and Museum Sachsenhausen¿). Please inform yourself before the camp on this site: <http://www.stiftung-bg.de/gums/en/index.htm>

Work part: Although the main task will be studies of history, manual work like gardening, maintenance work and cleaning-up of specific areas of the memorial are planned.

Study part: Besides the manual work the study component will be an important part of our project. Volunteers will learn a lot about the time of National Socialism, the Holocaust and also something about the period after World War II especially the Soviet camp Sachsenhausen until 1950. Guided tours in and around the memorial site Sachsenhausen and excursions to different memorials and places of earlier German history are planned. Volunteers will have the opportunity to work in the exhibitions and in the library of the memorial site. Furthermore there will be several discussions with employees who perform guided tours and are involved in historical research. The international volunteers with their different backgrounds will inform the group about the memories and commemoration in their countries.

Location: Brandenburg, Oranienburg, ca. 33 km to the north of Berlin.

Terminal: Berlin

Meeting point and time: During the day in the accommodation

Accommodation: You will be accommodated in a youth hostel, 2 km away from the memorial centre.

Special requirements: For this project it is necessary to have good or very good English skills!!! German skills are beneficial.

Please prepare at home a short presentation about your country, including the history of your home country and the view on German history.

A motivation letter - specific to this project- is required.

Volunteers should be able to ride a bike, because various shorter and longer bicycle-tours are planned.

Age limit: 18-26 years
