Description of Workcamp: Name: Smart Lady & Smart Life

Location: Village in Beijing & Hebei Province

Project:

Gender Equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for the creation of sustainable and peaceful societies. UNESCO's published report on Gender Equality: Heritage and Creativity vividly demonstrates the need for deeper debate, research and awareness-raising on the need for equal rights, responsibilities and opportunities for women and men, boys and girls in the fields of heritage and creativity.

CSE Smart Lady & Smart Life project is cooperated with the Beijing Municipal Women's Federation and Beijing Women International Center. It is especially focused on exploring how to build a world, which people can live together friendly, on achieving better gender equality. The main purpose of this project is to look into different aspects of life, culture and women's reality. It also tried hard to empower women and lead women to have a smart life.

Work#65306;

The volunteers will take visit at a village which is close to the Great Wall, meet with the local residents, try have some discussion about gender equality; do some surveys, try to analyze the result of the surveys and try to find some solutions for the problems the surveys reveal. At the same time learn/ teach the traditional hand crafts as the culture exchange, help local people to develop their own family workshop for life.

School visit and Education: The volunteers will have activity classes with Chinese rural school students, they will work together with Chinese volunteers in the schools to have classes and activities with the students there and also do some repairing work for the school, such as painting the roof, cleaning the school yard, and so on.

Volunteers will also have an experience of Chinese traditional culture and handy crafts skills learning.
