Description of Workcamp: LYVS 04-15 Sapieha's Patrimony
Ruzhany, Brest reg. 18.0729.07 ARCH/RENO 5 (18+)

The camp is organized in cooperation with our partner organization Belarusian Association of UNESCO Clubs (NGO) www.belau.info

Location: The camp will take place in a small village Ruzhany (3000 inhabitants), which is 140 km away from Brest. The place is known since 1490 and has several tourist attractions, the most prominent being the castle of a mighty and wealthy family the Sapiehas. The castle now is being renovated little by little (one part of it is a museum already). A lot of important events from the Polish, Lithuanian and Belarusian history are connected with that place. More about the castle: <http://www.belarus.by/en/travel/belarus-life/ruzhany-palace>.

Work to be done: The volunteers will help cleaning the basements and the yard of the castle.

Infrastructure: There is a bank, a post-office, several shops in Ruzhany. The wifi is not available at the site of the camp. No washing machine.

Accommodation: The volunteers will live at the local school, boys and girls separately.

Food: 3 meals a day, the volunteers will need to help the cooks.

What to bring:

- A sleeping bag
- Working clothes, footwear and gloves

Description of Workcamp: LYVS05-15 Radziwill's Patrimony
 Niasvizh,
 Minsk reg. 18.07-26.07
 ENVI/RENO 5 (18+)

The camp is organized in cooperation with our partner organization Belarusian Association of UNESCO Clubs (NGO) www.belau.info

Location: The camp will take place in a relatively small, but at the same time one of the most interesting towns in Belarus, Niasvizh (127 km from Minsk).

Niasvizh used to be the residence of the most powerful Polish-Belarusian noble family - the Radziwills. In the 16th century they turned a wooden village into a stone well-protected town with a castle (which later became a palace) and built the first Belarusian baroque-styled church there.

Lately the palace has been renovated and turned into a museum. The town is very popular with the tourists. More about the palace: <http://niasvizh.by/en/>

Physical work to be done: cleaning the parks in Niasvizh Castle complex.

Infrastructure: Niasvizh is a relatively small town (about 14,500 inhabitants). However, as it's very popular with the tourists, there are many cafes and restaurants, shops, several banks, ATMs, a post-office, a hospital etc.

Accommodation: the participants will live in a local school building, boys and girls separately.

Food: 3 meals a day.

What to bring:

- A sleeping bag
- Working clothes, footwear and gloves
- Light metal spoon, saucer and cup
- Interesting games or whatever for leisure
- Musical instruments (optional)
- Warm clothes (in the evening/night the temperature at the camp site can be about +15)
